

PORT HURON MILL

1700 Washington Ave., Port Huron, MI 48060

2018

AT A GLANCE

Originally built in 1888, Domtar's Port Huron, Michigan, mill operates four paper machines. A strong focus on new product development has helped the mill thrive in specialty paper markets, especially in lightweight and ultra-lightweight publishing, technical and specialty paper grades, primarily used for books, food and medical packaging. Additionally, the mill is a world leader in manufacturing base papers for the disposable medical gown and drape market. This wide variety of products and technologies offers employees the unique opportunity to develop a diversified skill set.
